TOWN OF HAVERHILL
TOWN COUNCIL REGULAR MEETING
Thursday, January 9, 2020
OFFICIAL MINUTES

CALL TO ORDER

Mayor Foy called the regular meeting of the Haverhill Town Council to order at 8: 01 p.m.

INVOCATION AND PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

Mayor Foy had given the Invocation and Pledge at the meeting of the LPA

ROLL CALL

Town Administrator called the roll. All members were present with the exception of Council Member Harvin. Attorney Foster and Administrator Rutan were also present.

COMMENTS FROM THE PUBLIC

None.

APPROVAL OF AGENDA

Attorney Foster recommended that all ten Ordinances scheduled for hearing be continued to a time certain for the first meeting in February.

Mayor Foy noted that would give Council 3 workshops and 1 meeting to address the Ordinances before them.

A motion was then made by Council member Sohn and seconded by Vice Mayor Gordon to defer action on the First reading of all proposed Ordinances until February 13, 2020.

Council Member Sohn asked that the residents be told what the Town had done to publicize the meetings and to announce the future workshops.

(Inaudible comments from the public).

Council Member Sohn told those present to look at the Town's website for updates. The Town Administrator reminded Council Member Sohn that because of ADA issues, the website is not being uploaded with PDF documents. She asked residents to contact her directly.

The times of the workshops was next discussed.

The Town Administrator announced the workshops for January 16, 2020 and January 23, 2020 that would begin at 6:00 p.m.

Mayor Foy announced that regular workshops are held the first Tuesday of each month at noon. He also explained to those present the difference between a workshop and a regular meeting.

Discussion followed as to what would be discussed at these workshops.

Bill DeBay, 5170 Belvedere Road. He highly encouraged all residents to ask for the rough draft of all the changes being made and to read the proposed Ordinances in their entirety. The draft is a big difference from the summaries of the changes

Again Vice Mayor Gordon expressed his pleasure that the residents are taking an interest in the matters before Council.

The vote was then called and passed 3-0.

PROCLAMATIONS AND PRESENTATION

County Commissioner District 2, Greg Weiss addressed those present. He expressed his appreciation to the Town for hosting his December meeting at the Town Hall. Government is put together to improve the quality of life and it was good for him to see Government in action. His door is always open and he welcomed all to reach out to him for any issues they may have. He commented that local government along with his office is working with the municipalities and you can see government getting things accomplished. Many spoke out in appreciation of Commissioner Weiss and what he can get done for the people. Mayor Foy commended the Commissioner for his genuine interest in listening to his constituents.

Linda Waite, 603 Tall Pines. She was requesting clarification on the height of fences and hedges. Mayor Foy elaborated that the Town spends 38% of the Town's budget coming from ad valorem taxes on extra PBSO patrols throughout the Town.

Kathy Bryant, 1053 Melinda Lane. She complained that PBSO has not been seen on Melinda Lane in quite some time.

Vice Mayor Gordon commented that the Town of Haverhill maintains the best crime stats for the County.

Someone reported the vehicle has been seen on Grove Street. Michael Jordan, Code Inspector commented that the noise emitting from the Grove Street area is coming from the north side of Grove Street.

COMMENTS FROM THE PALM BEACH COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE

Not available.

The Town Administrator offered Staff's report. Vice Mayor Gordon represents the Town of Haverhill on the League of Cities Black Caucus of Elected Officials and also serves as the Chairman of the Palm Beach County Chapter. The annual conference is being held March 12 -13 in Miramar, Florida. The costs have been budgeted for.

A motion was then made by Council Member Daniel Sohn, seconded by Vice Mayor Gordon and unanimously passed (3-0) to approve the travel request of Vice Mayor Gordon to the attend the annual FBC-LEO March 12-13, 2020 in Miramar, FL.

SECOND READINGS AND PUBLIC HEARINGS

None.

REPORTS

Town Attorney

None.

Mayor

None.

Town Administrator

The Town Administrator reported that the Town was unable to receive grant funding for the little library that was to be built under the pavilion, however, the Village of Royal palm Beach had come forward and offered to build the library for the Town. By general consensus, the Town Council accepted the offer from the Village of Royal Palm Beach.

Installing speed limit signs that speak to the vehicles. Per sign they would cost $5,029.00 each. They would be permanent signs. Because it was not a budgeted item, the Town Administrator was asked to continue to obtain costs.

Committee/Delegate Report

There had been a Palm Beach County League of Cities District 2 & 3 luncheon held the previous day where the main topic of discussion was about the recently released movie highlighting the National Enquirer. One of the members present at the meeting had worked for the National Enquirer and shared some entertaining. Matters.

A discussion took place about the Inspector General's office and the petty matters they require the municipalities to report on.

Treasurer's Report
